Long time, no speak. In fact, it's been so long that you should probably read the emails below to refresh your memory in terms of who I am and how we met. Anyway, I left you a message on your voice mail at work and then tried your cell. I did not leave you a message on your cell because this is work related.

I would greatly appreciate it if you would call me at your convenience at 917-543-0904. Thank you.

Ari is a pleasure to meet you. At least informal leave this way. And I have a feeling we'll get to meet each other personally real soon. Chris thank you very much for the introduction. Sorry I am running around today because I have an event at my home tonight for 35 kids that are on my son's crew team so I am available sporadically. Whenever you have a chance please call me on my cell phone at 609-868-2800 and if you receive my voicemail, know that I will call you right back. I have my phone with me and will throughout the rest of the day. I look forward to hearing from you. And again, Chris thank you much for the introduction

Craig,

I ran the calc by Seeger and Buchanan today. David had a couple of suggestions that I will run by you.

Also, see below regarding Clark. Did you discuss the new foe players with altzheimer and dementia to get a power of attorney? I believe they are required under the settlement agreement to sign the release with a power of attorney, so will be needed anyhow.

Ayal and I want to thank you, sincerely, for being so generous with your time on Tuesday and for your assistance and support. We greatly appreciate it.

Since our meeting, we have had internal meetings and discussed how we are going to proceed. We decided that we are going to wait for the "credit box" you are working on before we process Brad's and Allen Clark's applications and before we open up the loan program to other NFL players since it sounded like we would get your first draft of the credit template next week.

If there's anything Ayal or myself can do to assist you, please do not hesitate to reach out to one of us. We look forward to hearing from you and working with you, your staff and your clients.

Craig:

I hope this finds you well. As you know we are building-out our NFL loan program and with your help, we have made terrific progress. However, there is an outstanding question/issue that we need your help with.

At our meeting in your office we discussed whether there could be potential medical liens on your clients' recoveries. We recall you mentioning that there could be liens (Medicaid or others), but you thought that they might be capped. You were going to look into this for us. Do you have an update on this issue? This is a critical piece of information as it pertains to our underwriting analysis so any guidance you can offer would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your continued courtesy and cooperation herein.

Craig:

As discussed, I was told that Medicare liens are capped for players diagnosed with L1 Dementia at $1,800 and for L2 $2,100. I was also told that for Medicaid liens, they will be reduced by between 35%-50% on a state by state basis. All other liens will be worked out individually.

Dear [REDACTED]

Today, the third Circuit Court of Appeals denied the objectors request for the Court to reconsider their appeal. The only objectors to the Settlement is a possible application to the United States Supreme Court. As the "NFL concussion litigation" through this appeal process I continue to receive calls from retired players inquiring about the timeline with regard to litigation available. I anticipate that if the objectors make application to the United States Supreme Court and if that appeal is denied, the process could begin as soon as early fall of this year. Even if the matter does become final by early fall, the medical (BA) Administrators will have several months to finalize the process for medical evaluations and financial awards before any examinations or financial payments are distributed to players.

In addition to questions about the timeline, the second most frequently asked question that I have been receiving from players is with how can they receive money now. I do not recommend dealing with traditional funding companies as their rates are ridiculously high. The only financial solution that I have come across is a product known as "The NFL Concussion Advance Product". If you are in need of financial resources now, you may want to take a look at the below information and if interested call the contact information. They can be reached directly by calling 267-227-4810.

As always, if you have any questions in regard to the Concussion Settlement or related issues, please do not hesitate to call 856-427-9000 or by email at nfl@mitnicklegal.com. For detailed up-to-date case status information, you can always visit mitnicklawoffice.com and click on "Current Concussion Status" on the site's home page. Warmest regards. Craig Mitnick

NFL Concussion Advance Product

For all players that have a current diagnosis and cannot afford to wait any longer for their award, Thrivent Specialty Fund offers an alternative to the high priced lenders that you may have read about recently. All players who currently anticipate a pending diagnosis can take advantage of Thrivent's NFL Concussion Advance Product.

Based on your projected award amount you can receive the money you need now; $25,000, $50,000, $100,000 or more. There is a one-time transaction fee associated with each advance. That fee is paid for with part of the advance amount, so that t pocket cost to the applicant. When your award finally does distribute, Thrivest will be due the amount they purchased plus a small monthly rate, 1.58%, for the number of months it takes to collect. That rate equals 19% annualized, compared is less than most credit card rates.

Below are some examples based on different purchase amounts:

If a player needs $25,000 now:

Thrivest will purchase $25,000 of the player's award and will advance the player $25,000

- o If the award distributes in one year Thrivest will be paid $30,186.27 directly by your attorney
- o If the award distributes in 18 months Thrivest will be paid $33,169.91 directly by your attorney
- o If the award distributes in two years Thrivest will be paid $36,448.45 directly by your attorney

If a player needs $50,000 now:

Thrivest will purchase $50,000 of the player's award and will advance the player $50,000

- o If the award distributes in one year Thrivest will be paid $60,372.55 directly by your attorney
- o If the award distributes in 18 months Thrivest will be paid $66,339.82 directly by your attorney
- o If the award distributes in two years Thrivest will be paid $72,896.90 directly by your attorney

If a player needs $100,000 now:

Thrivest will purchase $100,000 of the player's award and will advance the player $100,000

- o If the award distributes in one year Thrivest will be paid $120,745.10 directly by your attorney
- o If the award distributes in 18 months Thrivest will be paid $132,679.64 directly by your attorney
- o If the award distributes in two years Thrivest will be paid $145,793.79 directly by your attorney

Subject: Response to NFL Concussion Settlement Motion No. 8470
Date: Thursday, November 9, 2017 at 10:28:46 AM Eastern Standard Time
From: Megan Ryan
To: Craig Mitnick

Dear Mr. Mitnick,

As you may have seen, Co-Lead Class Counsel filed a motion seeking an injunction directing the Claims Administrator to withhold portions of Class Members' awards owed by those Class Members to funding companies, including Thrivest. Thrivest has notified the Court that it intends to object to the requested relief, and the Court has recognized Thrivest as an objector with permission to respond by November 16, 2017. Among other things, Thrivest will argue that the Court does not have jurisdiction to enter the requested relief under Rule 23 or pursuant to the arbitration clause in Thrivest's agreement, and that Co-Lead Class Counsel has not established entitlement to injunctive relief.

For the avoidance of doubt, the pending motion does not alter any obligations under Thrivest's agreements with the Class Members or your Acknowledgment of Attorney.

Thank you,

Megan R. Ryan
